PART 1: THE POWERFUL IMPACT OF HIGHLY ENGAGED BOARDS

1. Big Blessings Abound When Governance Faithfulness Flourishes	2
Two stories: “The Board and the Bachelor Farmer” and “$1.5 Billion Worth of Burger Blessings!”
2. Engage Board Members in Generative Thinking	7
They rely on generative thinking in their day jobs but are rarely asked to think collaboratively in the boardroom.
3. The Productivity Payoff of Intentional Hospitality	13
Create hospitable and productive board environments.
4. Guarding Your CEO’s Soul	20
Wise boards invest time—up front—to ensure their CEO’s soul is not neglected.

PART 2: BOARDROOM TOOLS AND TEMPLATES

- 5. Dashboards Are Not a Secret Sauce for Sound Governance 28
Too often the use of dashboards does not clearly communicate the past and give signals for the future.
- 6. Enhance Harmony by Clarifying Your Participant-Hat Expectations 35
Understand the three board hats: Governance, Volunteer, and Participant.
- 7. Eliminate Fuzziness Between Board and Staff Roles 40
Keep your leaders on track with a one-page Prime Responsibility Chart.
- 8. Design Your Succession Plan—NOW! 46
What if your CEO is hit by a bus?

PART 3: NOMINEES FOR THE BOARD MEMBER HALL OF FAME

- 9. Just Do One Thing a Month 56
Make a specific ask of each board member each month.
- 10. A Unanimous Choice for the Board Member Hall of Fame 60
She limits her service to one board at a time.
- 11. Thrive With Four Kingdom Values 64
Set a high standard for the board and the board members.

- 12. Keeping the Boardroom Afloat 70
Are too many staff causing the boardroom to capsize?

PART 4: EIPHANIES IN THE BOARDROOM

- 13. Caution! Understand the Governance Pendulum Principle 76
You have limited time to act when the pendulum oscillates in a positive direction.

- 14. Plant a Seed in the Boardroom 82
Watch the Lord reap the harvest.

- 15. Be Intentional About Your First 30 Minutes 86
Does your board meeting need a refresh—so you experience holy moments more frequently?

- 16. Looking for Consensus but Finding Division 91
Finding consensus on challenging issues requires deft handling and a flexible approach by the board chair.

PART 5: BOARDROOM BLOOPERS

- 17. Botched Executive Sessions Are Not Pretty 98
Don't assume that your executive sessions will automatically be excellent.

- 18. Warning! Resumé-Builders Make Lousy Board Members 104
He envisioned how board service would look on his resumé.

- 19. Beware the Phone-Book-Size Report 107
My 84-page PDF landed with a thud.

PART 6: BOARDROOM TIME-WASTERS, TROUBLEMAKERS, AND TRUTH-TELLERS

- 20. Don't Be Late—or Annoying! 112
What's worse than fingernails on a chalkboard?
A boisterous board member at a prayer meeting.

- 21. Alert! The ER Factor Causes Value Extraction 116
Beware of the ER Factor in the boardroom—ego and rivalry.

- 22. Whopper Mistakes Can Unravel Your Ministry 120
If stupidity got us into this mess, then why can't it get us out?

- 23. The Bully in the Boardroom 125
The board chair, the CEO, and other board members must neutralize the board bully.

PART 7: BOARDROOM BEST PRACTICES

- 24. Should Most Standing Committees Stand Down? 130
How many standing committees are needed for effective governance?

- 25. Compensating the CEO—It's About More Than Money 135
Getting the compensation-setting process right must be a priority.

- 26. Big Rocks, Pebbles, and Sand 140
Ministry boards have a natural gravitational pull toward issues that should be reserved for the staff.
- 27. Address Absentee Board Member Syndrome 146
There are three unhealthy ways that many ministry boards respond to empty chairs at board meetings.

PART 8: BOARDROOM WORST PRACTICES

- 28. Defending Risks Everywhere Is Not a Strategic Plan 152
You must discuss the risk elephant in the boardroom.
- 29. The Two Enemies of Sound Board Decisions 157
Avoid being pressed for time and making major decisions remotely.
- 30. Are You Competing Based on Overhead—Really? 162
Boards should know the back-story on a ministry's overhead.
- 31. Where Two or Three Are Gathered on Social Media . . . 166
Conflicts of interest always sound more salacious on the internet and social media.

PART 9: HOLY GROUND AND OTHER LOCATIONS

- 32. There Are Two Things You Should Never Joke About—#1: Prayer 172
“The last one with your thumb up says grace.”

- 33. There Are Two Things You Should Never Joke About—#2: Fundraising 176
Flippancy about fundraising is never a good substitute for sincerity.
- 34. Five Troublesome Misconceptions of Board Members 180
Understanding board members myths can lead to improved governing effectiveness.
- 35. Leverage the 80/20 Rule in the Boardroom 185
Invest 80 percent of your board work on future ministry opportunities—not rehashing the past.
- PART 10: BUILDING A 24/7 BOARD CULTURE
- 36. Watch Out for Boards Asleep at the Wheel 194
Golden opportunities are missed when a board's eyes are wide shut.
- 37. How Many Board Members Are Present in Your Boardroom? 198
It's more than just answering the roll call.
- 38. Seven Times When a Board Member Should Bid Adieu 202
Board service is for a season—but it is not forever!
- 39. Identify Your Key Assumptions 209
An inaccurate premise may lead to a colossal flop!
- 40. You Made Me Better Than I Was 217
Board experiences should leave all participants better than they were.
