Attn: Church Boards

Invite your senior pastor and/or executive pastor to create a first draft of this tool—and then ask for suggestions at your next board meeting. Customize it for the unique needs of your church—and your senior pastor’s reporting style. Once you’ve tested it for several months, it should require only about 15 minutes per month for the senior pastor’s final touches—before it goes out to the board. Try it!

The 5/15 Monthly Report to the Board

A Communication Template

“CEO’s 5/15 MONTHLY REPORT TO THE BOARD”

✓ 5 Minutes to Read and 15 Minutes to Write
✓ emailed on the 15th of every month

John was blessed a few years back when Pat Clements, board chair at Christian Management Association (now Christian Leadership Alliance), introduced John to a simple, time-saving template. Like clock-work, on the fifteenth of every month, Clements, then CEO at Church Extension Plan, sent his 5/15 Report to his national board. So John borrowed his brilliant idea and customized the template for the board of CMA and sent it out—like clockwork—on the fifteenth of every month. The hallway whining stopped.

The Big Idea. Once formatted and tested, leaders can write this report in just 15 minutes each month and board members should be able to read it in just five minutes—and have a regular diet of both the good news, the new news, and the bad news. The content and frequency can be memorialized in the Board Policies Manual, by board action, so there is 100 percent board agreement on a report that serves the board's needs and expectations.

The Content. Customize the report so it meets your needs, but it will likely be five or less pages, easy to read, with a standard template. The content might include (in this order):

- Date/To/From/Subject
- Next Board Meeting (date, location, special details)
- Monthly Dashboard Report on 3-5 Board-approved Annual “SMART” Goals (Peter Drucker: “If you have more than five goals, you have none.”)
- Committee Highlights (bullet points only—and only if there is new information)
- Board Nominating Committee “Pipeline Report” (the running list of confidential prospect names under consideration)
- Monthly Financial Report Summary (YTD vs. Budget for revenue and expense)
- Major Program Notes (bullet points)
- Ministry Events Calendar & Top Leader’s Travel Schedule (12 to 24 months)
- A Brief Ministry Story—for the Board’s Encouragement (maximum of one-half page)
- Prayer Requests
- Personal Note from the Top Leader (one brief paragraph)
- Board Meeting Schedule (12 to 24 months: dates/locations/times and 2-4 key agenda items for each meeting: audit, CEO/Senior Pastor annual performance review, budget approval, annual board self-assessment, etc.)

After you have created and tested the first draft, with feedback from the board and the senior team, it’s ready to systematize and delegate to the executive assistant or another team member.
TOOL #10: The 5/15 Monthly Report to the Board

REMINDER #1: Readers or Listeners? Not all board members are readers. Listening is the preferred learning style for some people. If possible, accommodate both styles. So for your listeners, record the information, and email the recording—but keep it to five minutes or less.

REMINDER #2: The Four Social Styles. It’s important for CEOs to communicate effectively to all four social styles:

- The Analytical Style appreciates communication that is clear and concise.
- The Driving Style prefers a “just stick to the facts” report.
- The Amiable Style says “get to know me”—and content is often a lower priority.
- The Expressive Style wants you to listen to their opinions—so in your report ask for feedback and input.²

NEXT STEPS:

- Step 1. Decide: Assess the current status of between-meeting reports to the board and discern if a “5/15 Monthly Report to the Board” is worthy of a 90-day test period.
- Step 2. Delegate: Inspire your top leader to delegate to the executive assistant or another staff person the gathering of information.
- Step 3. Respond: Ask board members to respond to every monthly report—with a quick email thanks, a note, or a voicemail message.

CUSTOMIZE THIS TEMPLATE TO INFORM AND INSPIRE YOUR BOARD—BETWEEN MEETINGS!

CEOs/Senior Pastors: Use this monthly report template and delegate the “starter” to a team member or your executive assistant.

Then you can finish it with your unique style. Email it on the same date each month.

Board Members: Feedback is the breakfast of champions. Email a quick “Thanks—I got it!”

Download the 5/15 Monthly Report template and customize it for your church board’s unique culture and reporting requirements.

3 Jim Brown, The Imperfect Board Member: Discovering the Seven Disciplines of Governance Excellence (San Francisco: Jossey-Bass, 2006), 111.
Greetings. This is the first of what will now be monthly board reports to you, generally emailed on the 15th of each month. I’m calling this the “5/15 Report” – because it will take you just five minutes to read and it will take me just 15 minutes to write (with Bob’s help).

This new report format will be especially helpful to show to board prospects as we brief them on the work and ministry of 3J Global Ministries.

Board Governance

Board Meeting Schedule: Draft #1. As we confirm dates for future board meetings (calls and in-person meetings), we’ll fill in the meeting grid (see attached).

Next Board Meeting. See you soon! Our next board meeting is our annual board retreat, as you know. (See the email from Bob with all the details.)

- Date May 21-22, 2020
- Day/Time Thursday 4:00 p.m. to Friday 4:00 p.m.
- Location ABC Conference Center, Phoenix, Arizona

Board Documents. I am working with Enrique, and the team, to create drafts for your consideration on the following board documents:

- Board Member Annual Affirmation Statement (& Conflict of Interest Statement)
- Board Nominating and Election Policies (tied to our bylaws and/or proposed bylaw changes)
- Board Chair and Officers Position Description (roles and responsibilities)
- Board Policies Manual and Prime Responsibility Chart
- Board Member Orientation Notebook
- ECFA Accreditation (www.ECFA.org)
“Prospect Pipeline” for Future Board Members. Here’s an update from the Nominating Committee on the board prospects they are interviewing. See the board schedule for when board members will be elected.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 3J Global Ministries Forums</td>
<td>• Attendance is up by 30% YTD. Revenue will hit, perhaps, 40% of annual budget.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2 Vision 2022 Initiative</td>
<td>• Slow start due to staff changes, but we will recover.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3 Mission Agency Partners Program</td>
<td>• Just exceeded our FY goal of 10 partners. PTL!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4 Local Church Ambassadors Program</td>
<td>• May need to postpone until next fiscal year. Pilot program was a dismal failure, but we learned a lot!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5 Care Coaches Initiative</td>
<td>• Our consultant brought huge value. Client satisfaction goals of 4.2 on a scale of 1.0 to 5.0. Exceeded goal!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6 MissionFuture Capital Campaign</td>
<td>• Frankly, a disappointing start. May ask our Executive Committee to address our rather conservative fund development policies. Consultant is concerned, but we just received a major unrestricted gift of $100,000. (Details at our meeting.)</td>
